

Peter Welch Coaching

I offer executive coaching to enhance performance and strengthen leadership skills. I also focus on developing talent and potential within organisations and can support managers in creating a coaching culture.

Contact me also for facilitation of teams and for events, such as business planning 'away days'. I also provide high quality supervision to coaches, to support their professional development and build best ethical practice.

Please contact me for more information or to book a complimentary telephone session.

Train to Gain for leaders and senior managers

Funding of up to £1000 is available now for organisations with 5-250 staff, to benefit owner/managers and the top team, for their leadership and management development.

Funds, once approved, can be used for 1-1 executive coaching, online learning and support, business mentoring or consultancy or to provide customised high impact workshops for the top team.

I am a registered provider with Train to Gain and can access funds – part of which is match-funded - on your behalf.

Workshops, run locally, can include:

- Senior Management Development workshop
- Authentic Leadership workshop
- Coaching Skills - Coaching Basics and Advanced Coaching versions
- Team Development workshop
- Presentation Skills - basic and advanced versions
- Assertiveness Skills
- Effective Meetings and Facilitation Skills
- Performance Management workshop
- Developing your Talented People workshop
